

An idea that utilises an iPhone

An idea that involves a horse

An idea that involves a hoverboard

Combine two ideas that you already have to create one new idea

An idea that uses only sounds

What would MacGyver do?

An idea that uses food

An idea that a student could do in 5 minutes

An idea that involves a magic trick

An idea that can only be performed inside

An idea that can only be performed outside

An idea that involves interpretive dance

An idea that involves only using one hand

An idea that involves sitting down

Pick one existing idea. What would be the opposite?

You have won second prize in a beauty contest. Collect $100 000 dollars. Use the money in your next idea

An idea that requires visitors to work together

An idea that involves one change to the library work day/routine

An idea that involves one of your hobbies

An idea that involves a game

An idea that can be completed in an hour

Combine two objects together (e.g. An esky and a balloon) to create a new item. Use this item in your next idea

An idea that your grandma would come up with

An illegal idea